HERONGATE DINNER THEATRE

The century old Herongate Barn Theatre began as a dairy farm, and it housed animals typical to this kind of farm until the 1970's when it ceased to be economical. It served as a location for auctions, barn dances, and hayrides until 1975 when it was converted by the Ward family for use as a theatre. It is now a truly unique dinner theatre experience. Where else can you dine in a bull pen or manger, and sit on a theatre seat that originally came from the historic old Victory Burlesque Theatre in Toronto? Lunch will be served prior to the show.

SUNDAY MATINEES

The Love List

Feb. 7 to Mar. 21

It's funny, sophisticated and sexy with just enough edge to keep you nailed to your seat! For his 50th birthday, Bill, a lonely Statistician is given a free session at a mate finding service. After drawing up a list of 'qualities' for the perfect woman he soon discovers. "Be careful what you wish for' ..the old adage leads to hilarious results!"

The Odd Couple

Mar. 27 to May 2

This Hit Comedy is Neil Simon's revision of his hugely successful play The Odd Couple. The lead characters are transformed into "Olive Madison" and "Florence Unger", two suddenly single pals – a sloppy sportswriter and a fastidious news writer – strain their friendship by turning roommates and unconsciously repeating the same mistakes they made in the marriages they just left. "Book your tickets now because this show is ... Not to be missed!"

Murder at the Howard Johnson's

May 8 to June 27

Is all fair in love? Even Murder? A funny suspense comedy with laugh lines, mirth provoking situations and extravagant sight gags! Caught in a love triangle, three characters attempt to commit the perfect crime. Their bungled attempts will keep you in stitches! "Beware... the laughter in this comedy might kill you!"

Quartet

July 10 to Sept. 19

Growing old isn't for Sissies! A charming, funny tale of four aging opera singers past their best, with their once golden voices reduced to a croak, they still maintain a spark of mischief! "Comic, Poignant & Hilarious! ...Lunch!"

Broken Up

Sept. 25 to Nov. 14

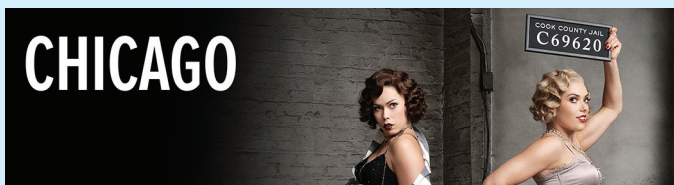

"If marriage is hell divorce is hilarious!" Nothing short of comic excellence as Meg moves into her new apartment and out of her old marriage with some of the best one liners since Neil Simon was making his initial Broadway splash. "A fast moving comedy with excellent dialogue and rapid fire laughter!"

Price: $79 per person (school bus)

Price: $99 per person (deluxe coach)

Stratford FESTIVAL

CHICAGO

April 29, May 5, 11, June 3, 24, Sept. 9, 22, 25 Oct. 1, & 7

The Festival has secured the rights to the first major production of Kander and Ebb's Chicago outside of New York and London in 30 years! Chicago is a musical for our time. It's about celebrity culture, corruption, lawyers and cynicism. It's about the power of leveraging all your assets to do the wrong thing. And it's filled with incredible music! Barry Weissler, who controls the rights to Chicago, is a huge fan of the Stratford Festival and because of his enormous faith in director-choreographer Donna Feore, he went out of his way to allow the Festival to do an entirely new production here in Canada. The hit musical, which holds the record for longest running musical revival on Broadway, will be entirely reimagined by Feore, whose work with musicals on the Festival stage has transformed classics and transfixed audiences. Under her creative guidance, this magnificent production will be created especially for the Festival's thrust stage and unlike any version of the show you may have seen before.

Lunch at the Queen's Inn or the Elmhurst Inn

Spring Price: $140 per person, orchestra seating

Fall Price: $145 per person, orchestra seating

MONTY PYTHON'S SPAMALOT

May 14 & September 23

King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table are off to find the Holy Quail – no, sorry, Grail. Along the way, they encounter the nonsensical Knights of Ni, a fearsome rip-your-throat-out rabbit and a surprising number of showgirls. You'll quest long and far before you find anything so sublimely silly, so irresistibly toe-tappingly tuneful, or so much fun.

Fall Price: $145 per person, orchestra seating

SHAW FESTIVAL 20

Gypsy

*April 16, 23, May 7, 13,
June 10, Sept. 15, 29,
October 7, & 8*

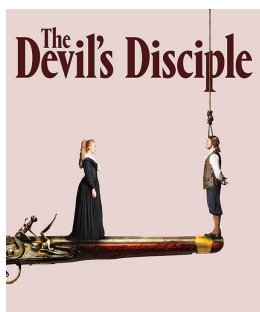

Gypsy Rose Lee was the world's most famous striptease artist; Momma Rose the ultimate stage mother. Follow their extraordinary story in Stephen Sondheim's timeless musical about sex, power and longing. With legendary songs, including "Let Me Entertain You" and "Everything's Coming up Roses," Gypsy remains the greatest American musical.

Lunch at Rockway Vineyards, Table Rock Restaurant, Prince of Wales, or the Pillar & Post

Price: from $140 per person, orchestra seating

The Devil's Disciple

June 9, Sept. 22 & 30

Dick Dudgeon is one of Shaw's great puzzles. To the people of his Revolution-era New England town he is "the Devil's disciple." But when British soldiers come to take their Presbyterian minister to the gallows for helping the rebels, Dudgeon does something truly remarkable. A potent mixture of sex and danger, Shaw's first major hit has some of his best scenes and his sharpest comedy.

HAMILTON FAMILY THEATRE, CAMBRIDGE

On Golden Pond

May 6 to 24

Ethel and Norman Thayer are returning to their summer home on Golden Pond for the 48th year for some much-needed rest and relaxation. Their delightful summer routine is thrown for a loop when their daughter Chelsea visits for her dad's 80th birthday, bringing her boyfriend Bill and his teenage son in tow. After an unexpected relationship blooms, fraught family dynamics come to the forefront as they are forced to navigate the generation gap through zippy, tart-tongued observations on fishing, literature, slang, marriage ... and their own mortality.

42nd Street

June 10 to 27

Starry-eyed Peggy Sawyer arrives in New York City in search of her big break. When the talented ingénue catches the eye of legendary director Julian Marsh, she instantly gets hired as a chorus girl in his next big-budget extravaganza ... much to the dislike of diva Dorothy Brock, who's starring in the show. But when the leading lady literally breaks a leg, Peggy might just have the shot at stardom she's always dreamed of. Will a star be born? Find out as this classic theatrical story unfolds on stage full of glitz, glamour, dazzling choreography, and sensational songs like "Lullaby of Broadway," "We're in the Money," "Shuffle Off To Buffalo," and the unforgettable title tune.

Fiddler on the Loose

July 2 to 18

Anchored by the extraordinary talents of fiddler and showman Jesse Grandmont, Fiddler on the Loose is a gregarious musical variety show that is sure to raise the roof! With its stirring blend of music, dancing, comedy, and of course, fantastic fiddling, this lively revue features over 60 songs running the gamut of genres from country and bluegrass to Celtic, classical, pop, and more. The eclectic song list moves seamlessly through memorable tunes like "Dust in The Wind," "Devil Went Down to Georgia," "Snowbird," "Misty," "Take Me Home Country Roads," "Orange Blossom Special," "King of the Road," and many, many more.

Return To Grace

October 7 to 25

Relive the hits of an American icon with a hip-swiveling, lip-curling salute to the King of Rock 'n Roll! Join us as internationally-renowned, award-winning performer Steve Michaels and a talented cast of singers and dancers celebrate the King's iconic tunes that remain as relevant today as when they first hit the top of the charts. Featuring a jukebox of standards including "Love Me Tender," "Hound Dog," "Suspicious Minds," "Heartbreak Hotel," and many more, you won't want to miss this high-energy homage to one of the most adored entertainers of all time.

The Sound of Music

Nov. 25 to Dec. 20

Join us for a timeless classic this holiday season, as our stage becomes alive with the sound of music. In this epic love story, aspiring nun Maria leaves the convent to govern the seven mischievous children of Captain von Trapp. Through her youthful vitality and purity of heart, she brings a fleeting moment of happiness to their lives as the shadows of tyranny spread over Europe. Touching the hearts of all ages, the iconic score by Rodgers & Hammerstein brims with some of the most memorable songs ever performed on the musical stage including "My Favourite Things," "Do Re Mi," "Edelweiss," "Climb Ev'ry Mountain," "Sixteen Going on Seventeen," "The Lonely Goatherd" and, of course, the glorious title song.

A Gentleman's Guide to Love & Murder May 20 to June 7

Winner of the Tony Award® for Best Musical and acclaimed by audiences and critics as a “knock-’em-dead, uproarious hit,” A Gentleman’s Guide to Love & Murder is an outrageous romp filled with unforgettable music and non-stop laughs! In 1907 London, England, penniless clerk Monty Navarro is delighted to learn that he’s eighth in line for an earldom in the esteemed D’Ysquith family. Figuring the odds of outliving his predecessors are slight, he sets off down a sinister path knocking off his relatives one by one with his sights set on the family title and fortune. All the while, this loveable cad has to juggle his mistress (she’s after more than just love), his fiancée (she’s his cousin, but who’s keeping track?), and the constant threat of being caught! Of course, it will all be worth it if he can slay his way to the inheritance ... and be done in time for tea. Don’t miss this hilarious whodunit adored by murder mystery and musical theatre lovers alike.

Rock of Ages

July 2 to 18

Fans of ‘80s arena hard rock music will dig this awesomely hilarious musical comedy that wails with big chords, big hair ... and an even bigger heart. It’s 1987, and aspiring rocker Drew meets and falls madly in love with Sherrie, a fresh-faced Midwesterner who has recently moved to Los Angeles to chase her movie star dreams. Will their stars rise? Will their love last? Find out in the worldwide phenomenon featuring 28 classic rock tunes like “We Built This City,” “The Final Countdown,” “Wanted Dead or Alive,” “Here I Go Again,” “Harden My Heart,” “Can’t Fight this Feeling,” and “I Want To Know What Love Is. “Don’t stop believin’ ... the music that ignited a generation is now rockin’ on stage near you!

Evita

Oct. 14 to Nov. 1

“Oh what a circus, oh what a show” ... this epic Tony Award®-winning Broadway musical by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice charts the meteoric rise of Argentina’s infamous Eva Perón, affectionately known as Evita. Full of ambition, glamour, and magnetism, Eva climbs her way up the ladder of success from a life of poverty, first as a model and actress, then as the wife of General Juan Peron, and finally as a celebrated spiritual leader and the most powerful woman in South America. To the poor masses, she is adored as a saint; to her enemies, she is reviled as a manipulative dictator. Nevertheless, for over thirty years this legendary woman becomes the driving spirit that helps define a nation. Featuring some of the best-loved songs in musical theatre including “Don’t Cry For Me Argentina,” “Buenos Aires,” “Another Suitcase in Another Hall,” and “High Flying, Adored,” Evita is a powerful and riveting theatrical experience not to be missed.

Wizard of Oz: The Panto Nov. 25 to Dec. 27

You know the story, but you’ve never seen it like this! With its winning combination of incredible music, lively dancing, outrageous costumes, audience participation, and of course, a dash of theatrical magic, this fractured fairy tale brims with humour, heart, and adventure. Join Dorothy as she takes a surprising new journey over the rainbow and makes her way to Oz with the help of some newfound friends. Just like past hits Sleeping Beauty, Jack and the Beanstalk, Cinderella, and Snow White, this entertaining panto adaptation of the famed fable is a must-see holiday spectacle packed with family fun!

The Dixie Swim Club

June 10 to 27

Five Southern women who met years ago on their college swim team set aside a long weekend every summer to reminisce and reconnect. Free from husbands, kids, and jobs, they meet at the same beach cottage on North Carolina's Outer Banks to catch up, laugh, and meddle in each other's lives. Over the years, the five feisty ladies increasingly rely on one another, through advice and boisterous banter, to get through the challenges – including men, sex, marriage, parenting, divorce, aging – that life flings at them, with some hilarious and unexpected twists and turns. Part Steel Magnolias, part Designing Women ... with just a hint of Golden Girls, southern-fried humour abounds in this rollicking comedy about the enduring power of friendship.

A Closer Walk with Patsy Cline July 29 to Aug. 15

"Come On In" and take a closer walk with a legendary performer as her colourful life and career are celebrated in this smash-hit musical. Journey through her triumphs and tragedies, from dusty roadhouse gigs in her hometown of Virginia, to her rise to fame at the Grand Ole Opry, and beyond. This toe-tappin', foot-stompin', hand-clappin' musical features 21 of Patsy's greatest hits – classics like "Crazy," "Sweet Dreams," "Walkin' After Midnight," "I Fall to Pieces," and many more. The first female solo artist ever inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame, and the winner of countless awards, Patsy Cline is undoubtedly one of the greatest singers of all time. Her untimely death in a plane crash in 1963 cut short an aspiring career and created an instant legend. On stage, she lives again.

KING'S WHARF THEATRE, PENETANGUISHENE

Sleeping Beauty: The Panto June 10 to 27

Join us as the beloved fairy tale comes to life on stage as a fun-filled family panto featuring popular music, lively dancing, outrageous costumes, audience participation, and more! When a lavish party is thrown to celebrate the birth of a princess, the exclusion of the land's most powerful sorceress from the festivities unleashes a wrath of fury. The vexed villainess puts a curse on the young royal – on her 18th birthday, the princess will prick her finger on a mystical spinning wheel and fall asleep for hundreds of years. Doomed by fate, can the prince of her dreams stir her from the trappings of a ceaseless slumber? Just like past hits Jack and the Beanstalk, Cinderella, and Snow White, the winning elements of singing, dancing, and laughter in Sleeping Beauty sparkle with spindles of charm and joy. Don't miss it!

WHISTLING GARDENS & DUNDURN CASTLE

Our day begins with a guided tour of the Dundurn Castle. A costumed interpreter will guide you through this early 19th century home, complete with period furniture and décor. This 40-room Italian style villa was built in the 1830's on Burlington Heights. Once home to Sir Allan Napier MacNab and his family, today Dundurn Castle tells the story of the family who lived above stairs and the servants who lived and worked below stairs to support their affluent lifestyle. Her Royal Highness The Duchess of Cornwall is the museum's Patron and the great, great, great granddaughter of Sir Allan MacNab. Enjoy a delicious lunch at the Olde School House, where her Majesty the Queen dined on one of her visits to Canada. Our next stop is at Canada's only privately run botanical gardens, Whistling Gardens. It's home to the largest public collection of conifers in the world with over 2,500 species, hybrids and cultivars on site. One of the many highlights at Whistling Gardens is the "fountain amphitheatre". The fountain display features over 100 individual fountains that have been choreographed to music composed by owner Darren Heimbecker.

THE LIGHTHOUSE THEATRE

Sugar Road

May 20 to June 6

Twelve years ago, Hannah Taylor was swept away in a night of romance when rising country music star Jesse Emberly rode into the Sugar Road Amusement Park for the Spurs and Hearts Music Festival. Now Jesse's coming back to town and the whole county is buzzing, but is Hannah ready for an encore performance? Don't miss this sweet romantic comedy with a country twang.

Halfway There

June 10 to July 4

Pull up a stool at the best diner in Stewiacke, Nova Scotia, exactly halfway between the equator and the North Pole. Recently dumped by his fiancée, Sean Merrit wanders into town looking for a change of pace from the big city, and soon strikes up a relationship with Janine the waitress. To win her heart, Sean will have to survive a grilling by Janine's three wisecracking friends – and take a leap of faith that this town in the middle of nowhere is exactly where he's meant to be.

The Cemetery Club

July 8 to 25

It's hard to meet people these days, so when sweet-tempered Ida takes a shine to Sam the butcher while visiting the cemetery, it seems like a gift from above. But Ida's friends and fellow widows – feisty Lucille and overbearing Doris – don't want their monthly cemetery trips interrupted, so they make it their business to break up the budding romance. When they realize they've made a terrible mistake, the widows must play matchmaker to make sure love survives after all.

Meet My Sister

August 5 to 22

The boxes are all packed, and sisters Blanche and Stella are ready to take their mother to her new nursing home. There's just one problem – mom won't go. She still has a few skeletons in the closet, and she's not leaving her house until she's said her piece. While the sisters bicker about what to do, their mother shouts zingers out her bedroom window, revealing long-buried family secrets that will change their lives forever.

Murder at the Howard Johnson's Aug.26 to Sept. 12

Check into the Howard Johnson Motor Inn for murder, mayhem, and killer laughs. Travel back to the 1970s as ditzzy Arlene and her lover Mitchell, a Casanova in disco pants, plot to knock off Arlene's used car salesman husband inside their hotel room. Things quickly go haywire as the hapless hitmen keep getting in their own way, and their attempts to do each other in hilariously fail. Allegiances shift, and soon everybody wants everybody dead. But hey, all's fair in love and contract killing!

Glory Days

September 15 to 24

HAMILTON

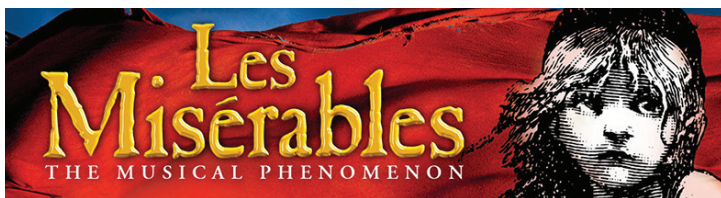

HAMILTON is the story of America's Founding Father Alexander Hamilton, an immigrant from the West Indies who became George Washington's right-hand man during the Revolutionary War and was the new nation's first Treasury Secretary. Featuring a score that blends hip-hop, jazz, blues, rap, R&B, and Broadway, Hamilton is the story of America then, as told by America now. With book, music and lyrics by Lin-Manuel Miranda, direction by Thomas Kail, choreography by Andy Blankenbuehler and musical supervision and orchestrations by Alex Lacamoire, Hamilton is based on Ron Chernow's biography of Founding Father Alexander Hamilton. Dinner at the Hot House Café.

BOOM

March 26 to April 5

Rick Miller's multimedia masterpiece offers a trip through history, as Miller recreates the defining moments of the Baby Boom generation. BOOM takes us through 25 turbulent years (1945-1969), and gives voice to over a 100 influential politicians, activists and musicians. It's a mind-blowing experience for audiences of all generations. This explosive show explores an era that begins and ends with explosions – Hiroshima (1945) and Apollo 11 (1969). With over 330 performances in Canada, the USA and France, Rick Miller's multimedia solo show is getting its Off-Broadway debut in 2020.

The Birds and the Bees

May 26 to June 14

The weekend may be the last-ever Turkey Days Festival, but for these four characters, that is just the beginning...There are birds – Sarah is a turkey farmer, and there are bees – her mother Gail is a beekeeper. And then there are 'the birds and the bees'. Twenty years after her divorce, is Gail ready 'to get back on the horse'...so to speak. Earl, Gail's divorced neighbour and tenant, has kept himself mightily busy with the ladies over the 20 years since his divorce. Sarah has left her loveless marriage and returns to the comfort of her mother's home. But Gail, with concerns for her bees, has little comfort to offer. And then there is Ben, an athletic Masters student, studying Gail's bees. This witty script offers laugh out loud comedy and a huge heart.

Shirley Valentine

June 30 to July 19

Mrs. Joe Bradshaw, Shirley Bradshaw is ready for an adventure. Shirley is an ordinary middle-class English housewife at home preparing a dinner of eggs and chips for her husband wondering what happened to the young woman she was.
