Although Kitchen Kettle Village boasts 42 shops, 2 restaurants and 17 lodging rooms, like most homes in Lancaster County, the hub of activity around here is our family-run kitchen. Here the locals cook up homemade Pennsylvania Dutch sweets like jelly, jam and butter, fresh baked goods like pie and cookies, and delicious canned goods like relish, salsa and pickles. And they do it all right before your eyes!

In Lancaster County we're known for our strong work ethic and wholesome food. So let us do the cooking, and you can relax, sample some pepper jam and whoopie pies, and find plenty of delectable food gifts to take home to delight your family and friends.

Stroll through the village. Sample pepper jam, watch fudge being rolled, go for a horse drawn carriage ride and listen as Banjo Jimmy plays a tune. And did we mention the shopping? It's like a treasure hunt with everything from hand carved signs, to handmade quilts, to Brighton leather goods, to UGG boots and so much more.

Our group will be greeted by a Kitchen Kettle representative and given maps. The greeters will point out the bathrooms and the two restaurants a musical starring the Hershey Product Characters and a sizable shopping area with an array of confections, candies, homemade fudge, cookies, apparel, toys and other excellent gifts. 2:00 pm Tour of Farmlands

Guide will take you off-the-beaten-path; to places you probably wouldn't find on your own – you'll see the beautiful countryside, learn about Lancaster's local Amish, and be able to ask the guide any questions you may have to ask.

Part of Lancaster County's old-fashioned charm and homespun warmth stems from the Amish community. In many ways, Lancaster has become synonymous with Pennsylvania Amish Country. The families, farmers and craftsmen here follow a deeply religious, family-centered lifestyle that has maintained this tradition through a simple way of life that has not adopted the mainstream culture, yet has adapted in many necessary ways throughout the last 300 years. Forgoing "outside world" luxuries, the PA Amish who grace our small towns and farmlands present a fascinating and authentic horse-and-buggy contrast to the hustle and bustle of the 21st century.

The tour today takes you through the scenic Pennsylvania Dutch Country. Here you'll discover Amish communities where life moves at a slower pace and centers around time-honored traditions and values. You'll find beautiful scenery dotted with one-room schoolhouses and wooden covered bridges, modern farm machinery being pulled behind four-and six-mule teams, homemade clothing and quilts gently blowing in the breeze, and where you'll hear the clip-clop of horses' hooves echoing down quiet country roads.

Tour will include stops as time allows:

- A Mennonite bakery
- An Amish Roadside stand
- Amish Dairy Farm
- An Amish Woodworking home with talk from the owner

5:30 pm We'll drop our guide off and head to dinner

5:45 pm Depart for Evening on an Amish Farm

We get a rare opportunity for true interaction with an Amish family! Sit down to an authentic Pennsylvania Dutch meal catered in their home. The family visit the guests at numerous tables that are set up throughout the first floor of the large home which sits on a pristine farm. Your members can watch as mules and cows graze in the fields, or you can play with the children, wander about the farm, enjoy the sunset from a rocking chair on the porch, and listen to the neighbor's buggies clip-clopping down the road while delighting in an unbelievably peaceful experience! Up to four generations of the family may participate during the evening and they are there to converse and to answer any questions that the group members may have. You will discover the evening is just as anticipated by this family as it is by our group!

Following a hardy dinner the owner of the farm will get up and begin asking questions of the group in order to set the discussion in motion. Your group's interests and personalities will determine the direction of the conversation. You will be amazed when you see how "at ease" everyone becomes during this part of the evening! The home will be filled with laughter in no time at all!!

Needless to say, cameras are not allowed in the home and no pictures should be taken of the family. The subjects of discussion are endless and your group will be told that they can ask anything they want!
